ARTICLE VI. [DISABILITY BENEFITS.] RESERVED.

[33-86. Applicability.]

[The provisions of this article only apply to individuals who:

- (1) Are members of the retirement system under this chapter on or after May 15, 1986, and submitted an application for disability benefits on or after May 15, 1986, but before July 1, 1989, or is an elected official on July 1, 1989, and submitted an application for disability benefits on or after May 16, 1986, but before December 3, 1990;
- (2) Are members of the retirement system under this chapter before May 15, 1986, but who opted into the disability benefits program under this article and submitted an application for disability benefits on or after May 15, 1986, but before July 1, 1989; or
- (3) At any time chose to participate in the elected officials' plan and submitted an application for disability benefits on or after May 15, 1986, but before December 3, 1990.]

[33-87. Definitions.]

[(a) In general. In this article, the following words have the meanings indicated.

(b) Administrator. "Administrator" means:

- (1) The disability retirement hearing board, when the application for benefits under this chapter is filed by a member with the disability retirement hearing board before May 15, 1986, and there is no final decision from the disability retirement hearing board on the application before May 15, 1986.

- 806 (2) For all other applications for benefits under this chapter, 807 administrator means the entity that contracts with the county to 808 administer as a third part administrator:
- 809 a. The disability retirement program under section 33-43 of 810 this chapter; and
 - 811 b. The disability benefits program under this article.
- 812 (c) Employee. “Employee” means an individual who participates in the 813 county retirement system under article III of this chapter.
- 814 (d) Final earnings. “Final earnings” means:
- 815 (1) The annual average of the regular salary of an employee less
 816 any shift pay differential for the eighteen-month period
 817 immediately preceding the disability or any consecutive 818 eighteen-month period, whichever is greater; or
 - 819 (2) For an employee whose salary has been reduced as a result of a 820 disciplinary action, the annual average of the regular salary of 821 the employee for the eighteen-month period preceding the 822 disability.
- 823 (e) Non-service-connected disability. “Non-service-connected disability”
 824 has the same meaning as “service-connected disability” except that it
 825 is the result of an illness or injury that was incurred while away from 826 the performance of duty as an employee.
- 827 (f) Service-connected disability. “Service-connected disability” means a 828 condition of an employee that:
- 829 (1) Is the natural and proximate result of an accident occurring, an 830 occupational disease incurred, or a condition aggravated while 831 in the performance of duty as an employee;

- (2) Is not due to the willful misconduct or willful negligence of the employee;
- (3) Makes the employee:
 - a. Incapable of performing the job that the employee performed before the illness or injury; and
 - b. Unable to engage in available employment commensurate with the training, education, and experience of the employee; and
- (4) Is likely to be permanent.]

[33-88. Non-service-connected disability benefits.]

[An employee may receive non-service-connected disability benefits if the employee:

- (1) Has a non-service-connected disability;
- (2) Has five (5) years of credited service under the county retirement system of this chapter;
- (3) Is not eligible for normal retirement under the county retirement system of this chapter; and
- (4) Is not eligible for service-connected disability benefits; and
- (5) Has an injury or illness which occurred subsequent to enrollment in the Montgomery County employees' retirement system.]

[33-89. Service-connected disability benefits.]

[An employee may receive service-connected disability benefits if the employee has a service-connected disability and if the employee is not eligible for normal retirement under the Montgomery County employees' retirement system of this chapter.]

[33-90. Temporary disability.]

858 [(a) Waiver. In extenuating circumstances, the administrator may waive 859 the requirement that an employees' disability is likely to be 860 permanent.

861 (b) Approval. The administrator may approve temporary disability
 862 benefits for one (1) or more one-year periods until the administrator
 863 determines that the disability:

864 (1) Has ended; or

865 (2) Is permanent.]

866 [33-91. Administrative application for benefits.]

867 [(a) The chief administrative officer must notify an employee that an 868 application for disability benefits should be made if the employee:

869 (1) Becomes ill or injured; and 870 (2) Is unable to perform at an acceptable level of competence the 871 duties and responsibilities of the position to which the 872 employee is assigned.

873 (b) If the employee fails to apply for disability benefits, the chief
 874 administrative officer may apply on behalf of the employee.]

875 [33-92. Accrual of benefits.]

876 [Disability benefits begin to accrue on the earliest of:

877 (1) The date that the employee exhausts all accrued sick and 878 compensatory leave in excess of eighty (80) hours; or

879 (2) The date that the application for disability benefits is approved.]

880 [33-93. Amount of benefits.]

881 [The annual amount of disability benefits payable equals two (2) percent of 882 the final earnings multiplied by the number of years of creditable service, up to 883 thirty-six (36) years, plus sick leave credits, but may no be less than:

(1) Thirty-three and one-third ($33 \frac{1}{3}$) percent of the final earnings for a non-service-connected disability; and

(2) Sixty-six and two-thirds ($66 \frac{2}{3}$) percent of the final earnings for a service-connected disability.]

[33-94. Cost-of-living adjustments.]

[(a) Annual adjustment. A cost-of-living adjustment must be made annually to the disability benefits awarded under this article.

(b) The cost-of-living adjustment must be the same as the annual adjustment made to the uniform pay plan for county employees.]

[33-95. Reduction of disability benefits.]

[(a) Reduction by income received. Disability benefits may be reduced after any cost-of-living adjustment made under section 33-94 by income received:

(1) As the sum of wages from employment and as the product of net earnings minus net losses from self-employment;

(2) From any other government group income maintenance insurance coverage for the disability;

(3) From social security disability benefits, including benefits payable to dependents on account of the disability;

(4) From any government disability plan; and

(5) From workers' compensation.

(b) Amount of reduction. The reduction must be determined according to the following offset formula:

(1) The first one hundred dollars ($100.00) a month of income from a long-term disability plan to which the employee has contributed is exempt from the offset.

- 910 (2) The first three hundred dollars ($300.00) a month of income 911 from employment is exempt from the offset unless the salary of 912 an employee receiving non-service-connected disability
913 benefits is equal to or greater than the salary the employee
914 would have received if the original employment had not been 915 interrupted.
- 916 (3) Income from employment between three hundred one dollars
917 ($301.00) and six hundred dollars ($600.00) a month has a one 918 dollar ($1.00) offset for each four dollars ($4.00) of income.
- 919 (4) Income from employment above six hundred dollars ($600.00)
920 a month has a one dollar ($1.00) offset for each two dollars
921 ($2.00) of income.
- 922 (5) Income received under subsection (a)(2) through (5) of this 923 section has a one dollar ($1.00) offset for each one dollar
924 ($1.00) of income.
- 925 (c) Refusal of employment. If an employee refuses to accept two (2) 926 offers of employment offered under section 33-98, which were 927 commensurate with the training, education, experience, and physical 928 and mental capabilities of the employee, the amount that employment
929 would have paid if accepted will be offset from the disability benefits
930 of the employee in the same manner as income from employment
931 under subsection (b) of this section.
- 932 (d) Refusal of training. If an employee refuses to participate in retraining 933 offered under section 33-98, the disability benefits received by the 934 employee will be reduced by half.
- 935 (e) Termination of employment.

(1) If the employment offered by the county under section 33-98 terminates, the employee will continue to receive the amount of disability benefits, which were offset by the income received from the employment, that the employee received while in the employment.

(2) The administrator may restore the disability benefits in whole or in part:

a. To facilitate reemployment; or

b. If the administrator determines that the employee is unable to be employed.

(f) Review of offset formula. Every two (2) years, the county executive must review the offset formula and recommend changes to the dollar amounts to the county council in order to accommodate changes or no changes in general income levels.]

[33-96. Discontinuation or termination of disability benefits.]

[The administrator must terminate disability benefits granted under this article if the employee:

(1) Recovers from the disability as determined by the administrator;

(2) Fails or refuses to provide the administrator with the information that the administrator requires; or

(3) Reaches the normal retirement date under the county retirement system of this chapter.]

[33-97. Medical examination.]

[Unless the administrator determines that fewer medical examinations are needed, the administrator may require the employee to undergo annual medical examinations.]

[33-98. Retraining and employment of employees.]

- 963 [(a) Program established. By regulation adopted under method (1) of 964 section 2A-15 of this Code, the county executive must develop a 965 program for retraining, if retraining is necessary, and employment of 966 employees who are receiving disability benefits under this article.
- 967 (b) Implementation of program. The administrator will implement the 968 retraining and employment program.
- 969 (c) Employment level. Any employment offered to an employee under 970 this section must be commensurate with the training, education, 971 experience, and physical and mental capabilities of the employee.
- 972 (d) Participation required. Unless the chief administrative officer 973 exempts an employee based on medical evidence that would preclude 974 successful completion of the retraining program, the employee is 975 required to participate in the program.]

976 [33-99. Appeals of decisions.]

- 977 [(a) If the county or an employee disagrees with a preliminary decision of 978 the administrator, the county or the employee has a right to a hearing 979 before the administrator. The contract between the county and the 980 administrator must provide procedures to:
- 981 (1) Assure the impartiality of the hearing;
 982 (2) Notify the employee of the right to counsel at the hearing; and 983 (3) Establish a record of the hearing that will be the basis for 984 subsequent reviews.
- 985 (b) The county or the employee may appeal on the record the final 986 decision of the administrator to the merit system protection board
 987 within thirty (30) days from the date that the employee receives
 988 written notice of the decision.

- (c) The county or the employee may appeal the final decision of the merit system protection board to a court of competent jurisdiction as provided in the Maryland Rules of Procedure, chapter 1100, subtitle B.]

[33-100. Regulations.]

[Before May 15, 1986, the county executive must adopt regulations under method (1) of section 2A-15 of this Code to implement this article.]

[[52-16C. Real property tax recapture.]]

[(a) Tax levied; basis; rate. There is hereby imposed upon the occasion of the transfer of real property located in the county a tax on the amount by which the taxable value of such property on the date of recognition exceeds the assessed valuation of that property. The tax shall be calculated by multiplying the amount so determined by three dollars and seventy cents ($3.70) per one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(b) Assessed valuation.

(1) Subject to the provisions in paragraph (2) of this subsection, "assessed valuation" shall mean the actual assessed valuation of such property on which annual property taxes are payable as determined on the date of finality immediately preceding the date of recognition.

- (2) If the boundary lines of a parcel of real property on which the tax imposed hereunder differ on the date of recognition from the boundary lines of the real property of which that parcel was a part on the date of finality immediately preceding the date of recognition, the assessed valuation of such parcel shall be determined by allocating to that parcel a pro rata share of the assessed valuation of that real property which, on the preceding date of finality, encompassed the parcel being transferred.

(c) Taxable value of real property on the date of recognition.

- (1) Taxable value of real property on the date of recognition [shall] must be determined by multiplying by 0.45 the consideration received for the transfer of such property and subtracting [eight thousand dollars ($8,000.00)] $8,000 from the resulting product. [Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions] However, the taxable value of real property classified [pursuant to state law] as "homestead property[.]" under [article 81, Maryland Code Annotated, section 14A(a)] Section 9-105 of the Tax-Property Article of the Maryland Code on the date of recognition [shall] must be determined by multiplying by 0.40 the consideration received for the transfer of such property and subtracting [eight thousand dollars ($8,000.00)] $8,000 from the resulting product.

- (2) If, subsequent to the date of finality immediately preceding the date of recognition, betterments have been made to real property subject to the tax imposed by this section, the cost of such betterments incurred by the person transferring the property may be deducted from the consideration received for the transfer of that property prior to calculating the taxable value of such real property on the date of recognition.

(d) Definitions. For the purpose of this section, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings respectively ascribed to them:

Assessed Valuation. That valuation determined in accordance with subsection (b) of this section.

Betterments. All physical changes to the property which tend to increase the value thereof.

Consideration shall be determined as follows:

(1) In the case of a transfer of real property in fee simple, consideration shall be determined in accordance with section 52-19 of this chapter.

(2) In the case of a transfer of a partial interest in real property, the value of the interest transferred shall be used to construe the value of the entire property.

Date of Finality. January 1, the date as of which assessments of real property become final for the taxable year next following.

Date of Recognition. The date on which the transfer of real property takes place.

Major Betterments. Improvements which cause an increase in the value of improvements on the property by more than two hundred (200) percent.

New Construction. The improving of property on which no previous improvements existed.

Real Property. Land and improvements thereon.

Taxable Value of Real Property on the Date of Recognition. That value determined in accordance with subsection (c) of this section.

Transfer shall include:

(1) The transfer of real property in fee simple.

(2) The transfer of a partial interest in real property.

(e) Exemptions from tax.

(1) The tax imposed hereunder shall not apply to the initial transfer of property on which there is new construction or on which major betterments have been constructed subsequent to the date of finality immediately preceding the date of recognition.

(2) The tax imposed [hereunder shall] under this Section does not apply to any transfer of land:

(A) [transfers of land] assessed as agricultural land, under [section] Section 52-21(d) [of the Montgomery County Code, as amended; nor to];

(B) [transfers of land] classified as rezoned if [such transfers are] the transfer is taxed under [section] Section 52-21(e) [of the Montgomery County Code, as amended; nor to];
or

(C) [transfers of land] assessed as planned development [lands] land under [section 19(f) of article 81 of the Annotated Code of Maryland] Title 8, Subtitle 2 of the Tax-Property Article of the Maryland Code.

(3) The tax imposed hereunder shall not apply to the transfer of real property by any nonprofit hospital or nonprofit religious or charitable organization, association or corporation, nor by any municipality, county or state government or any instrumentalities, agencies or political subdivisions thereof, nor to the transfer of real property by will or descent.

(4) The tax imposed hereunder shall not apply to the transfer of real property made pursuant to a bona fide written contract or agreement entered into prior to the date on which this section becomes law; provided, that the director of finance may require satisfactory proof that the contract or agreement was entered into prior to such date.

(5) In the event a parcel of real property is transferred more than once between dates of finality, the tax imposed hereunder shall be collected only once; provided, that no boundary lines have been changed or no improvements have been made subsequent to the initial date of recognition. In the event boundary lines changed, the assessed valuation shall be determined in accordance with paragraph (b)(2) of this section.

(f) Payment of tax.

(1) The transferor of property subject to the tax imposed hereunder shall be solely liable for the payment of the tax. The tax shall be paid at the time of or prior to the presentation of any instrument to the county supervisor of assessments for transfer of any interest in real property on the assessment records of the county. In the case of a transfer of an interest in real property which is not required by law or ordinance to be transferred on the assessment records of the county, the tax shall be paid before any instrument conveying such interest shall be presented to the clerk of the circuit court for recordation.

1230 (2) The tax shall be paid to the director and payment shall be 1231 evidenced by fixing an official stamp upon the deed or 1232 instrument by the director or his authorized representative
1233 showing the amount of the tax paid. Where the director, after 1234 payment, determines that a greater tax is due, the difference in 1235 tax shall then be immediately due and payable. Interest shall 1236 run at a rate of eight (8) percent per annum from the date of 1237 initial payment on the amount of the additional tax due.

1238 (3) Prior to the time of payment, the taxpayer shall submit to the 1239 director a report upon such forms and setting forth such 1240 information as the director may prescribe. The director may, at 1241 his discretion, require satisfactory proof of any information
1242 contained in such forms.

1243 (g) Appraisal of property; additional tax due. Where the director has 1244 reason to believe the consideration for an interest in real property has 1245 been incorrectly stated by the taxpayer, the director may cause to be 1246 made an appraisal of the property in question. If such appraisal shows
1247 a different value from that reported by the taxpayer, and if the director 1248 then determines that a greater tax is due, the greater tax shall 1249 immediately be due and payable. If, prior to such determination by the 1250 director, the property has been transferred and the tax imposed 1251 hereunder has been paid at the lesser amount, interest on the 1252 difference in tax due shall run at the rate of eight (8) percent per 1253 annum from the date of initial payment. The transferor and transferee 1254 shall be jointly and severally liable for payment of the difference in 1255 tax due.

(h) Appeals. In accordance with the jurisdictional approval of the state department of assessments and taxation, any decision made by the director under the provisions of this section may be appealed by any aggrieved party to the property tax assessment appeal board of the county not later than thirty (30) days following the mailing of the notice of such decision by the director. In the event the aforesaid appeal procedure is not approved by the state department of assessments and taxation, appeals from any decision of the director under the provisions of this section may be made by any interested or aggrieved party to the circuit court for the county, which shall have the power to affirm the decision, or if such decision is not in accordance with law, to modify or reverse such decision, with or without remanding the case for rehearing. Whenever any such appeal is taken, a copy thereof shall be served on the director by the appellant in accordance with the Maryland Rules of Procedure. The director shall, in accordance with the Maryland rules, file with the circuit court originals of all papers and evidence presented, together with a copy of his opinion. Any party to the proceeding may introduce additional evidence in the circuit court. Any party to the proceeding in the circuit court may appeal the decision of the circuit court to the court of special appeals within thirty (30) days of the decision. The review proceedings provided by this section shall be exclusive.]]
